Gospel Reflections Sharing and Celebrating Faith Donal Neary SJ

One of Mary's first recorded journeys was after the announcement to her that she was to be the mother of God. It was a journey of service, a visit to her cousin who needed help. When dealing with such challenges as pregnancy bereavement, redundancy, a son in prison, or a daughter on drugs - we want to talk and we want support. Mary and Elizabeth had something else to share - their faith. The prayers they said have been said ever since. The stage was small but the audience has been millions ever since. They were not shy about their faith in their God.

In a time like ours we need to externalise our faith - to go to Church, send a card with a Christmas greeting, not just a season's wish - not to parade, but to make present our faith.

The meaning this week is - Jesus is born, and we celebrate that together, with thanks, music, socialising, prayer and Mass. We need to find God again, and let ourselves be open to him in the deepest areas of life, just like f both these women, Mary and Elizabeth, and their spouses Joseph and Zechariah were open to God promptings.

Nothing need keep us from God or from the crib at Christmas. All are welcome. The real meaning of Christmas is to meet with God and to help our neighbour.

*Come Lord Jesus and bring joy and laughter among us.
Come with , the music of eternity and the songs of the earth.
Come among us and make us truly grateful for your birth and your love.*

Christmas Newsletter 2024

Let Peace Flourish

There is something very special about this time of year. It stirs up in us something very deep inside us. Despite all the problems of our world, we are brought back to the things that really matter. Our thoughts often go back to former Christmas times and to the people who loved and nurtured us. This is a time to give thanks for them and to treasure those around us. At the darkest time of the year, a light of Hope is given to us. That light is God, who loves us profoundly and who came and lived among us. As we celebrate his birth, we are once again reminded of who we are, created in God's image and likeness.

God has high hopes for each one of us because he sees in us what we can be.

This Christmas, I am thinking about the people of Palestine as they try to survive amongst the rubble of what was their country. This past year we have seen atrocities committed that are hard to understand in 2024. One wonders how those responsible can sleep at night, given the cold and calculated murder of Men, Women and Children in their thousands. In so many parts of the world, it is often the innocent who suffer amidst terrible injustices. We are called this Christmas to pray for peace and stability in our world and an end to war. God became Human in order to reveal to us who we are and the great potential that we have to love. That message is as fresh today as it was over two thousand years ago.

Over the last few years, we have been on a journey as a partnership of three parishes. It has been a good experience to try to work together. I would like to express my thanks to all the people of the three parishes for your support and love of your parish. We are on a journey, even though we do not know where that journey will ultimately take us. But that is how it is for all who are born of the Spirit. We know that we are being guided by the Spirit and we have entrusted that journey to God.

I would like to express my thanks to all the staff of the parishes and volunteers who make the parishes alive and vibrant. The parishes could not exist without you. What you do is much appreciated. A special thank you to Fr Gerard and Fr Eamonn. May the wonder and love of God touch your hearts this Christmas. May I wish you a peaceful Christmas and every blessing for the journey of 2025.

“Faith is salted and peppered through everything at Christmas. And I love at least one night by the Christmas tree to sing and feel the quiet holiness of that time that's set apart to celebrate love, friendship, and God's gift of the Christ child.”
